

27 June 1951

Maj. Gen. James A. Code, Jr., USA (Ret.)
332 South Michigan Avenue
Room 1800
Chicago 4, Illinois

Dear General Code:

General Smith received your letter of 22 June 1951 just as he was leaving the office for a short trip, and asked me to advise you of the present status of [redacted] application for employment.

[redacted] is under active consideration for employment, however, it appears that it will be some time before a final determination is made. As you can understand, our procedure for processing individuals for responsible positions is necessarily time-consuming.

I have asked our Personnel people to push this case along and I shall, of course, advise you as to the final outcome.

Sincerely,

[redacted]
Assistant to the Director
